

2024 Regional Award Guidelines

PURPOSE OF GUIDE AND SUBMITTING ANNUAL REPORT

- To provide detail for chapters on presenting the formal Annual Report to respective Regional Office and Corporate Headquarters as adopted by the General Board during its February 2009 General Board meeting.
- To provide symmetry and alignment with the recently adopted Chapter Operating Standards and Awards, Recognition Process.
- To provide revision and clarification of Chapter reports process approved during Houston Conclave 1973.
- The annual report also serves as a tool in supporting the results of the annual chapter assessment.

POLICY STATEMENT:

As per Fraternity's constitution, all Chapters are required to submit a formal chapter report on an annual basis. Chapters will be required to report in the following 5 focused areas:

- Scholarship and Academic Achievement
- Program Implementation and Reporting
- Membership Growth and Retention
- Chapter Operations
- Risk Management

REQUIRED SUBMISSION PERIOD:

All chapters are required to submit an annual report to the office of the Regional Director by March 9, 2024. The report will cover the chapters' activities for the year just concluded (January 1st through December 31st of 2023). Each Regional Director is required to submit to the Corporate Headquarters for the International Standards and Awards Committee Review; the chapter report information of who turned in their chapter report to them, so it may reflect the same as headquarters.

- During a Conclave year, all Regional Directors are responsible for submitting the Regional Outstanding chapters for both alumni and collegiate by May 9th of that year to the International Standards and Awards Committee Chairman and the International Executive Director via email.
- During a non-Conclave year, all Regional Directors are responsible for submitting the Regional Outstanding chapters for both alumni and collegiate by the conclusion of your Regional Conference to the International Standards & Awards Committee Chairman and the International Executive Director via email.

ACCOUNTABILITY:

All Chapters are mandated to submit an Annual Chapter Report. Chapters who fail to present Annual Report may be suspended and/or fined by their Regional Director.

EVALUATION:

The annual report will be reviewed by the respective Regional Director and evaluated by each region's Standard and Awards Committee and the International Standard and Awards Committee.

DEVELOPING THE ANNUAL CHAPTER REPORT:

1. Prepare a professional cover, which includes the name of your chapter, your region, College or University, City where chapter is located.
2. Ensure first page includes chapter address, officers and contact information, and chapters' email address.
3. Include Summary Report of Chapter Self-Assessment Results.
4. Utilize your results of the Chapter Self-Assessment Tool to report in each of the following categories:

a. Scholarship and Academic achievement

In this section, provide academic demographics. For example, undergraduate should list cumulative GPA and alumni chapters discuss academic performance of chapters you advise. Alumni Chapters are to share learning opportunities and special presentations that took place in chapter meetings. Alumni chapters are to also provide academic demographical information as presented in the self-assessment.

b. Program Implementation and Reporting

In this section the chapter is able to provide documentation on implementing Fraternity programs. The chapter is encouraged to add action photos that support documentation. The chapter should also provide a summary and accountability of community service hours.

c. Membership Growth and Retention

In this section, chapters are to provide a chapter roster, which includes contact information for each member. Include total active brothers, newly initiated brothers, reinstated brothers, and transferred brothers from collegiate to alumni chapters as well as other transfers. Alumni chapters indicate career or business industry/title. Collegiate chapters, indicate classification and your career goals. Chapters are to share membership growth and strategies as well as outcomes/results of those goals and strategies.

d. Chapter Operations

This section allows the chapter to share a complete operations assessment of chapter. Use the standards included in the Chapter Self-Assessment Tool to lead your discussions.

e. Risk Management

In this section the chapter can report and document chapter risk management procedures.

OTHER REPORTING NOTES:

- The report is to be uploaded via OneDrive in PDF format.
- At least one PIA for each of the three national programs should be included in the chapter report and for each individual award (PIA must be present with submission!)

IMPORTANT NOTE**

All Chapter Reports are to be UPLOADED to the portal by March 9th to be considered for the Regional Outstanding Chapter Award and International Model Chapter Consideration. To be considered for the individual awards all submissions must be UPLOADED to the portal by March 9, 2024.

The interview and chapter display table will be done virtually. The awards committee will be in contact with eligible chapters by March 16th.

The George Washington Carver Education Award

“The George Washington Carver Education Award” is to keep before the brotherhood and the public the accomplishments and deeds of Brother George Washington Carver, Member, Distinguished Service Chapter. Dr. Carver was a world-renowned agricultural scientist and teacher, who almost single-handedly saved the post-Civil War agricultural economy of the South. Dr. Carver made more than 300 products from peanuts and 100 or so from the sweet potato, and by doing so he revolutionized the agriculture of the South and improved the nutrition of mankind. Another purpose of the award is to recognize the service to community and the personal achievements of the brother in the region who has done what Brother Carver suggested: Learn to do common things uncommonly well; and kept in mind that anything that helps fill a dinner pail is valuable.

The John T. Thornton Bigger and Better Business Memorial Award

“The John T. Thornton Bigger and Better Business Memorial Award” is to keep before the brotherhood and the public the accomplishments and deeds of Brother John T. Thornton, the first Sigma from the Southwestern Region to become a Life Member of the fraternity. In Kansas City, Brother Thornton was a member of Alpha Delta Sigma Chapter, well-known educator, charter member of the Board of Directors of Douglass State Bank, real estate developer, successful businessman and owner of the Parkview Hotel. In the late forties and early fifties, the Parkview Hotel was the largest and finest hotel for blacks in Kansas City. The 1948 SW Regional Conference was held in the Parkview Hotel. Another purpose of the award is to recognize the service to community and the personal and corporate achievements of an individual(s) or organization in business for profit.
